MILHOLLAND'S FOOTHOLD. IT RURYS TO SURRENDER ANY BLEC-TION INSPECTORS TO HIM.

More Time Required Before the Republi-Ontwardly Amicable Division of Spotis The Republican State Committee will probably not meet at the Fifth Avenue Hotel until July 20 to tackle that problem about the election inspectors. Originally it was intended that the committee should meet on July 19, and, in addition to fixing up this matter, name the day for the State Convention, which undoubtedly will be held at Saratoga on Sept. 12 or thereabouts. But this disturbance as to which organization-the Milholland or the Bliss-Patterson-is entitled to the Republican election inspectors in New York county has complicated matters. There are about 2,300 of these inspectors to be appointd, a nucleus of no small proportions for the Republican vote. The three gentlemen who are discussing this problem are Mr. Platt, William Brookfield, Chairman of the State Committee, and Charles W. Hackett, Executive Chairman of the committee. Mr. Milholand also had a talk with Mr. Platt yesterday. Mr. Hackett came from Utica to help straighten out the tangle.

All the information is to the effect that the Milholland and the Bliss-Patterson factions, as indicated in yesterday's Sun, will agree upon the list of inspectors that is to be submitted to the State Committee. Just what the proportionate representation is to be has not been determined, except that it was repeated yesterday that the Milholland folks will get yesterday that the Milholland folks will get one-third and the Bliss-Patterson people two-thirds of the inspectors. This may be changed, it was aided. This, however, will depend a good deal upon the investigation of the enrollments of the two organizations. Each accuses the other of the grossest frauds and most mendacious statements.

Ex-surveyor theories W. Lyon, Mr. Brookheld, Eilhu Root, and even the genial Joel B. Erhardt, ex-Collector of the Port; Col. Bliss, and every knight of the old Arthur round table are arrayed against young Milholland. They have fought him every luch of the way since last January, when he got up his scheme for a new Republican county organization. Some of these Republicans, usually mild in speech, burst into hot weather language at the name of Milholland. His conduct in organizing the State Club is his latest and most heinous offence. It takes four years to get into the Union League Club, of which the old Arthur contingent are all members. It is customary to appear there in a swallowtail and numps. At the State Club there are fine paintings and divans and velvet carpets and the rum is just as good.

The Republicans who go to the State Club are just as welcome in a calleo jumper as in a swallowtail. Some of the most renowned Republicans in the State. Platt and anti-Platt, belong to the club. The majority of those who belong to the Union League are anti-Platt. Air. Platt and his friends were more instrumental than anybody else in defeating Gen. Arthur for the nomination at Chicago just ten years ago. It takes a long time in politics to wite out old secres. Arthur to years ago, It takes a long time in politics to wine out old scores.

Meanwhile the Democrats are looking on an i getting as much fun out of the wrangle as the situation in their own camp will warrant,

GRACE GOING TO EUROPE.

May Run for Mayor. William R. Grace will depart for Europe next week, to be gone several months. He will be back in time to take a hand in the New York county nominations for municipal offices, especially for Mayor. Mr. Grace and his friends would like to go hand, and glove with the Republicans in making up a local ticket. but the Republicans who feel that way want to name the candidate for Mayor. So do the Grace people. The Milholland people are op-Grace people. The Milholland people are opposed to any union that will nominate any kind of a Democrat for Mayor. The Blass-Patterson lolks are apparently in it for any kind of a deal. But falling in a dicker, Mr. Grace, it was positively said yesterday, will rink himself for Mayor or nominate Charles & Fairchild, who votes in Cazenovia, Madison county, and has a fine New York city home in Clinton place. The Milholland Republicans believe more in the strength of the Stecklers than in the Grace organization.

Mayor Gilroy, it is asserted, will not accept a renomination. Richard Croker's friends say that Mr. Croker is authority for this statement. S-nator Hill and Senator Murphy have had talks with local Democrats on the situation, and Senator Hill's advice was "to keep cool and not get disturbed." Senator Murphy is new in Troy, and will stop over on his way to Washington. The best fight possible will be made in the State and in New York city.

ATLANTA, July 12 .- The Democratic Congressional Convention of the Third district, in re-nominating Speaker Crisp for election to Con-gress, recognized President Cleveland only by a promise of support in carrying out the plat-form, especially that part that holds to the use of both wold and sliver without discrimination.

THE NEW ST. NICHOLAS CLUB HOUSE. It Cost $185,000 and Was Thrown Open to the Members Yesterday.

The new home of the St. Nicholas Club, at 7 West Forty-fourth street, was thrown open to the members yesterd y. While the club house was building the members enjoyed the hospitality of the New York. Century, and Metropolitan clubs. The old club house was at 385 if ith avenue. The new one cyst the members $135,000 as it stands. It is one of the smallest club house in this city, but the space is most skillfully utilized. In the hangust room there is scatting capacity for 150 persons. An electric elevator runs to the top of the house, where are the diging rooms and the kitchen. The opening was without ceremony. The members simply took up their club life where they left off at the old louss. The limit of membership of the St. Nicholas Club, 350, has long since been reached. tality of the New York, Century, and Metro-

Deputy Sheriff Mulvaney has received an attachment for $3,200 against John C. and Wilhelmins F. Muller as residents of East Faterson, in favor of John J. McPhee, growing out of a real estate transaction. Dr. McPhee, it is said, exchanged a drug store at Eighty-secon is street and Lexington avenue for twenty-three lots at East Paterson, and alleges that he found liens on the property that had not been disclosed to him. The Sheriff levied on the drug store yesterday, but found a third party in possession.

Three judgments aggregating $61,574 were possession.

Three judgments aggregating $11,57% were entered yesterday against John D. Helssenbuttel, wholesale coal dealer of 1 Broadway, in favor of Stickney, Conyngham & Co. for $31,552; Dickson & Eddy, $30,025.

FENDERS FOR TROLLEY CARS.

Newark Board of Works Declares that They Must Be Put on Before Oct. 1. Two more suits for damages were brought in Newark restorday against the Consolidated the loss of a foot. The foot belonged to 12-year-old John Connelly, who, it is declared, was pushed from a trolley car in Bowery street on May 0 by an employee of the company on one

May 9 by an employee of the company on one car and was run over by another car. The other case is brought by Mrs. Catharine Sinn, whose 17-year-old son, Alfred Bits, was kiled by a Springfield avenue trolley car on April 18. She wants $10,000 damages.

The Newark Board of Works has ordered that all trolley cars in Newark shall be equipped with life-saving fenders before Oct. 1, and has passed a resolution imposing a penalty of $50 a day thereafter for each oar unprovided with a fender. The electric cars had killed thirty-four persons in Essex county up to Saturday night. The company has made many tests of patent fencers and has decided to accept an automatic one invented by S. A. to accept an automatic one invented by S. Darrach of Newark.

NEW ARMOR PLATE PROCESS.

A Russian Method to Have a Test at Sandy

Hook This Month. PHILADELPHIA. July 12.-The engineers at the Midvale Steel Works are experimenting with a process of producing a steel arms plating for war vessels which, it is said, will sustain a much higher test than the Harveyized plates. At a recent test in Russia the new plates had great success. The process is seplates had great success. The process is secret and is said to be entirely new, and it is said that the product will sustain the shock of the most powerful projectile that can be hurled against it.

A test of this new plate will be made on July 20 or 25 at Sandy Hook, under the supervision of Capt, Heath, Chief of the Ordenance Bureau. The plate to be tried is ready for shipment, and is 8 feet long, 6 feet wide, and 10%, inches thick. Charles Harrah, President of the Midvale Steel Works, speaking of the new armor plate, said:

We would not submit any of our product to such a severe test as applied by the War Department without first knowing what the product submitted was capable of withstanding.

A BROOKLYN PLAT FIRED.

One of the 87 Inmates Was Nearly Burned A fire which is believed to have been due to arson started early yesterday morning in the cellar of the four-story double flat building at 404 Fourth avenue, Brooklyn, owned by P. G. Hughes. The smoke and flames shot up the elevator, and although the alarm was quickly given, the occupants, of whom there were thirty-seven in the house, had to fice for their Coroner Schultz held an inquest yesterday in'o the case of John Houghtaling, engineer of the steamboat Tolchester, who was killed by the breaking of the steamer's evinder off by the breaking of the steamer's cylinder off Stony Feint on June 72. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, inquests were also held in the cases of Frank McAleer, one of the victime of the tugboat Nicol disaster, and of Lawrence Arnold, who was killed by the electric current while ciling an electric fan at 779 Br-adway. Is the McAleer case verdict of death by drowning was returned, while in the Arnold case the jury returned a verdict censuring the Bruah Electric Illuminating Company for not having its glectric wires insulated.

Asphalt for the Parks.

The Park Commissioners rejected yesterday the bid of Henry G. Homer for supplying asphalt to be used in the parks. Mr. Homer's bid was the lowest, but the Commissioners were not satisfied that the material he pro-posed furnishing was up to the required stand-ard, although he offered ample security that he would furni the specifications. The contract will be given to the bicilian Asphalt (empany, whose bid was $1,500 higher than Homer's.

JERSEY CTIT'S ORANGEMEN. Their Pirst Parade Since 1878 New York ers and Brooklynites Take Part.

Many of the Orangemen who were not permitted to parade in this city and Brooklyn restorday went over to Jersey City, where Chief of Police Murphy had not only granted a permit to parade but had agreed to furnish a large police escort. The police escort was offered not because the Chief thought it was necessary, but as a matter of precaution. There is only one Orange lodge in Jersey City, the Apprentice Boy Lodge, and it has its head-quarters in Franklin Hall, Jersey City. Those who intended taking part in the parade began to arrive about 10 A. M., but it was nearly 1 o'clock before the line moved. Several men wearing bright green ribbohs gathered around when the parade was form ng and guyed the Orangemen, but no other demonstration was a Scurritous Letter by Mail. The charge made by Sandow, the strong man, that Attila, the other strong man, sen him a scurrious letter through the mails was investigated yesterday by United States Commissioner Shields. Attila was represented by ex-Assistant United States District Attorney Rose, and Sandow by Assistant United States District Attorney Mott.

Sandow said he had known Attila for nine years and had seen him write hundreds of letters and knew his handwriting. He recognized Attila's handwriting in the letter comnized Attila's handwriting in the letter com-plained of. The last time he saw Attila prior to the present unpleasantness was three or four months ago on Breadway. He denied that Attils had taught him anything about athletics. At this Attils smiled sarcastically. Sandow's private secretary, John Germaine, also testified that Attils wrote the letter. Au-gust Dewell, another strong man, and F. Zieg-feld. Sandow's present manager, testified that in their opinion the objectionable letter was written by Attils. After Mr. Rose and Mr. Mott had had con-siderable argument over the admissibility of derable argument over the admissibilit siderable argument over the admissibility of the letter as evidence, Commissioner Shield accepted it and adjourned the hearing unt-hept. 27. Greatly to the disappointment of the spectators, San-low and Attila got out of the building without exhibiting their strengt upon each other.

HIN WIFE ARIED TO SHIELD HIM,

enuse She Wouldn't Go for Beer. On June 20, James Farrell, aged 26, returned to his home at 96 Graham street, Brooklyn, in an avil mood and began to abuse his 16-yearold wife. He seized her while trying to escape from the house with her baby and kicked her into insensibility. Mrs. Farrell was taken to into insensibility. Mrs. Farrell was taken to the Homosopathis Hostital and for several days heriffe was despaired of. Yesterday she was able to appear in the Myrtie avenue court, where her husband was arraigned.

She pleaded to have her husband released, and old justice Haggerty that she had buried her haby on the previous day and felt in a forgiving spirit. She gave her testimony with much reluctance, and said she had provoked the trouble by refusing to go for beer for her husband. The accused was held for the Grand Jury.

A Victory for Brooklyn's Newest Trolley John Adamson, a taxpayer, recently brought a suit in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn for an injunction to restrain temporarily the Nassau and Kings County electric railway Nassau and Kings County electric railway companies from continuing the construction of their thirty or forty miles of new trolley lines, for which they had received a franchise by the last Board of Aldermen. It was contended that the valuable grant had been obtained through fraud and that the interests of the city had not been properly protected.

The municipal authorities were also charred with having unduly favored these companies over the Union Street Railway Company and with having failed to give the application of the latter proper consideration. Yesterday Chief Justice Brown handed down a decision in favor of the defendants.

Accidentally Shot by a Policeman's H Policeman John Enright of the Union Marcot station was running to eatch a street car at Stanton street and the Bewery yesterday when his revelver fell from his pocket. The weapon was discharged when it struck the aidewalk, and the builet hit Thomas Wood. 38 years old, of 12st West Twenty-fifth street. The wound was a slight one.
